

Alexander Street Press

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alexandria, VA – April 30, 2007

Reviews are welcome.

Please contact Eileen Lawrence, Vice President, Sales and Marketing

lawrence@alexanderstreet.com or 800-889-5937 ext. 211

James McPherson to speak at Alexander Street's ALA breakfast

Pulitzer Prize winning historian James McPherson will be the guest speaker at this summer's Alexander Street ALA breakfast on Sunday, June 24. Dr. McPherson served as an editorial adviser to Harper's Weekly: 1857-1912, and is widely acknowledged as one of the world's foremost experts on the American Civil War.

McPherson's works include The Struggle for Equality, awarded the Anisfield-Wolf Award. In 1989, he published his Pulitzer-winning book, Battle Cry of Freedom. And in 1998 another book, For Cause and Comrades, received the Lincoln Prize. In 2002 he published a scholarly book, Crossroads of Freedom: Antietam 1862, and a history of the Civil War for children, Fields of Fury.

If you would like to attend this summer's Alexander Street ALA breakfast, you can register online (<http://alexanderstreet.com/alasignup.htm>). Space is limited, so register now to ensure your spot is reserved.

###

Alexander Street Press, L.L.C., is an academic publisher of electronic full-text databases in the humanities, social sciences, and music. Founded in July 2000, the company publishes collections in history, literature, music, psychology, sociology, drama, film, performing arts, black history, women's history, diversity studies, and other areas. Alexander Street Press is located in Alexandria, Virginia.

###

Editors: For additional information on Alexander Street Press and its products, please contact Eileen Lawrence, vice president of sales and marketing, 800-889-5937 ext. 211 or lawrence@alexanderstreet.com. Or visit <http://alexanderstreet.com>.

###