DANCE ONLINE: DANCE RESEARCH LIBRARY

A photograph of two dancers in a dramatic, low-to-the-ground pose. The dancer on the left is leaning back with one leg raised, while the dancer on the right is leaning forward. A bright light source, possibly a spotlight, is positioned between them, creating a strong lens flare and illuminating the scene. The background is dark and filled with a fine mist or spray of particles, giving the image a textured, ethereal quality.

Enjoy the complete run of Dance Magazine, from 1927 to present, available for the first time online exclusively through Dance Online: Dance Research Library.

The only collection of curated primary and secondary full-text materials to support informed performance, pedagogy, and scholarship in dance.

Dance Online: Dance Research Library presents the historical context of 20th and 21st century dance through 125,000 pages of exclusive photographs, correspondence, magazines, dance notation, and reference material that dissolve the distance between archive and scholar and draw dance students into the library.
